Darcy and I have been together until I found out about this. She would come over here and stay we'd go. Do stuff together as long as you obey the TPO. Derek got in trouble a while back before this whole incident.
Derrick Had this planned out before the incident, even took place. And here's the video I have.
I told her that she needed to tell somebody this and she would not. She didn't want to get derrek in trouble, And I guess herself. I can't even go to the gas station in my town. No more because she's been running around telling everybody. Then I grabbed his Dick. I was called a pedophile the other day when I'm picking up cigarettes. I'm sorry. The last time we talked I was very upset. But this shit has gone too far
